To the Justices of the Supreme Judicial Court in the holden at Bangor, within and for the County of Penobscot, on the Fourth Tuesday of October, A. D. 1851.

PETITION of Daniel Briggs, Jr. late of Moosac in the County of Piscataquis now of Guilford, in said County—William Willings of said Moosac, and Ephraim Flint late of said Moosac now of Orrington, that Leonard Jackman of Canaan in the County of Somerset, on the 10th day of December A. D. 1849 sued out of chancery a writ of partition to be holden at Norridgewock within and for the County of Somerset on the second Tuesday of January then next and against the petitioners and others to the term of said Court holden on the first Tuesday of May 1850, at which time the demandant's declaration was duly filed and judgment was rendered against them for the sum of three dollars and fifty cents debt, and fourteen dollars and seventy cents costs of suit, that said writ was upon said a garb, by said Daniel Briggs, Jr. for quitclaim deed to obtain the petitioners arrest on an execution against him as principal, and John H. Rice as surety on said writ, and that said Briggs, Jr. prior to the service of said writ upon him, to wit on the 1st day of May 1850, by his deed of that date, duly executed and delivered, conveyed to said John H. Rice in fee simple, all the real estate of which he the said Briggs, Jr. was seized and possessed at the time of the service of said writ upon him, and that said deed was duly recorded in the Somerset Registry of Deeds, and that said Rice has ever since been and still is in the actual possession of said premises, and that said Briggs, Jr. has not any property, real or personal, subject to attachment on said writ, whereby the petitioners can obtain satisfaction of said judgment, and that said Rice of but little interest, and that American industry entered into the competition to a very small extent. It is believed that by a more careful selection of articles, and by a larger introduction of our own products, the interest of the Exhibition by these two essential particulars can be greatly increased.

They have assurances, not only from England, but from the principal countries of the Continent, to justify the expectation of bringing under the eyes of American citizens not only such specimens of the industrial arts as shall generally interest the practical American mind, but such rare products of industry and skill as have never been seen among us. Some of these were among the richest articles of the London Exhibition, and others are now being prepared abroad expressly for exhibition here. And, more than this, they hope to bring within the reach of all, such wonders of the Fine Arts as have hitherto been approached only by those who have been able to seek them abroad.

The Corporation is authorized by its charter to award prizes among the exhibitors; and in discharging this part of their duty, the Directors will hereafter invite the cooperation of the most eminent and capable of their fellow citizens.

If this Association effect their object, of which there can be no reasonable doubt, they will have given an impulse to mechanical skill and manufacturing industry, will have raised higher the standard of taste, will have extended and diffused the knowledge of the various families of the world, and in so doing, will have strengthened the great bonds of Union and Good Will.

A Voice from California.

We are permitted to make the following extracts from a letter recently received by a gentleman in this city from Mr. Lorenzo Beale, who is now in California. This letter is dated San Francisco, Feb. 20th, 1852.

He says that it cost for himself and wife about $600 to get to California. They enjoyed good health, but in the boat in which they took passage from Panama, two hundred persons were sick, and sorely ill were they used. He says that the risk of health and life is great. Business of all kinds is dull in San Francisco, and many mechanics and others are glad to work for their board. There has not been sufficient rain for the miners to work to advantage, and four-fifths of them would be glad to get back to the Atlantic coast if they could.

One man in a thousand happens to do well in digging, and their cases are trumpeted through the newspapers by interested persons, and thereby thousands are deceived, and many will curse the day they ever saw California. The disappointed hopes of these cannot be portrayed. "You may tell all who intend to come to California, that they had better remain at home. I should be glad to be back in Bangor, but as I am here I shall remain for a time."

"If people will come to California against my advice, and my warning, let them purchase reliable through tickets.

"There are hundreds and thousands of men here who cannot get anything to do, and what is to become of them I cannot tell."

We have been trying the gossipping cloth, manufactured by Major T. W. Chapman, of this city, and find it an excellent article, wearing very handy, and it has proved highly effective in preventing fleas, and the numerous [illegible] experiments.

☞ The two Democratic General Committees of the city of New York, have passed resolutions, by unanimous votes, in favor of the nomination of Hon. Chas. Ill. for the Presidency. The Young Men, however, pledge themselves to support the nominee of the National Democratic Convention. The Old Men do not go quite so far as the young men on this point, although they recognize the claims of other distinguished Democrats.

☞ A despatch dated to the Mercury yesterday, states that the election in Kent, A. K. Parris for Governor, was celebrated by a procession five miles in Portland, and in Bangor by the firing of one hundred guns and a large meeting of the people in Bangor Common.

☞ The Democratic Clarion has in its way argued the matter all out and arrives at the conclusion that it is not Constitutional to bestow pensions upon the widows of deceased revolutionary soldiers. The Clarion is plenty large on Constitutional questions.

☞ The Gardiner Lithuanic Association is in a very prosperous condition. It has a library of 7 or 800 volumes, a very respectable cabinet of minerals. CHILDREN, WITH HYDROPHOBIC MYRIOMETER.

HYDROPATHIC ENCYCLOPEDIA, a descriptive and practical work, designed as a guide for families and physicians. Illustrated with numerous cases. By Jos. Shew, M. D., author of various works on Hydropathy. New York: Fowler & Wells, 1852. pp. 431.

The author of this work is well known as the editor of the Water Cure Journal, and the author of several valuable works treating of the cure of diseases by the use of water. The design of the work is to instruct those who are interested in the subject in regard to the management and diseases of children. It is a popular book purposely intended for the use of the family, and for the enlightenment of the mass of the people. This volume will be hailed with pleasure by many families who believe in the efficacy of the water cure, and who cannot afford the expense of employing a physician at $2 per visit. This book will be found a valuable companion in every family, and will save many times its cost in doctor's bills. We commend the work to the attention of our readers, and to the public generally.

The work may be found at the Bookstore of [illegible]

Resolved, That the Whig party of Pennsylvania is most ardently devoted to the Union as it is, and that it regards as treasonable and attempts, come from what quarter they may, to sunder the nations compact or to weaken its binding force and obligations.

Resolved, That this Convention, representing the nearly unanimous sentiment of the Whigs of Pennsylvania, hereby reiterate the expression of their entire confidence in the soundness of the political principles, and their high appreciation of the eminent public services of the able, patriot, statesman, and captain of the age, General WINFIELD SCOTT, and that now, as heretofore, we present him for the presidency, as the most desirable choice of the people of Pennsylvania, for that high office, and in the fullest confidence that under his leadership we can and will triumphantly carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania, without which no president was ever made.

Resolved, That the administration of President Fillmore deserves and receives our hearty commendation for the ability and patriotism with which it has conducted the foreign and domestic policy of the country, coming with its peace and influence, and that this commendation is based no less upon the dignified and unflinching manner in which our intercourse with foreign nations has been conducted, than upon its wise conciliatory and beneficent management of domestic affairs; the reduction of postage, the enforcing of the strictest economy and economy of public officers, and in supporting the protection of home industry and the improvement of rivers and harbors. Eminently national and truly conservative, we hail President Fillmore as a bright ornament to the Whig party.

Resolved, That the delegates from this State to the National Convention are hereby requested and instructed to support the nomination of General WINFIELD SCOTT as the first choice of the Whigs of Pennsylvania, and as giving us a certain ground of hope of regenerating our noble Commonwealth, and placing it in the array of Whig States.

Resolved, That we tender our hearty thanks to Ex-Governor Johnston for the manly efforts put forth by him to reduce the State indebtedness and lessen the State taxes, and deeply regret the defeat which deprived the State of his services as her chief executive officer. His administration is one to be referred to as one of the proudest in the annals of our State and adds new lustre to her fame and fame, at home and abroad.

Resolved, That we recommend the Whig National Convention to meet at Philadelphia, on the 7th of June next.

One of the delegates offered the following, which was unanimously adopted:—

Resolved, That it is with feelings of the deepest sorrow that we learn of the illness of that distinguished statesman, Henry Clay, and that we sympathize with the whole nation in being thus deprived of his valuable services in the councils of the nation.

And one is not.

When at eve my children gather
Round the lonely fireside,
Whispering to my spirit, Father,
In the love we each confide,
While I press them to my bosom,
In an overflow of joy,
How I miss that sinless blossom—
Him who was the only boy.

Often will they talk of brother—
Where he is and how he was,
For I think that for another
We should have no longer cause;
And I love to hear their feelings
With the kindness one must,
Though the thrilling tone of stealing—
That dear form is lonely cold.

THE ROAD TO HEALTH

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

CURE OF A DISORDERED LIVER AND BAD DIGESTION.

Copy of a letter sent us by Mr. R. W. Kirkus, Chemist, 7, Great Winchester Street, London, dated 6th July, 1851.

To Professor Holloway.

Sir,—For many years I have tried various remedies and patent Medicines for a severe disorder of the Liver and Digestive Organs, but never found any relief from them, until I was induced to make a trial of your Pills and Ointment, which I am happy to say has restored me to perfect health. I have since recommended them to many persons who have been suffering from the same complaint, and in every instance they have proved successful. I am now in the enjoyment of perfect health, and shall always feel happy in recommending your Pills to my friends.

I am, Sir, your obedient servant,

(Signed) R. W. KIRKUS.

AN EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF RHEUMATIC FEVER, IN VAN DIEMEN'S LAND.

To the Professor of Medicine.

Sir,—I have much pleasure in forwarding you the following statement of a case of Rheumatic Fever, which has been entirely cured by the use of your Pills; during this period I was under the care of three of the most eminent medical men in Launceston, but they, one and all, declared my case to be beyond the reach of medicine, and that I must die. In this hopeless state I was induced to try your Pills and Ointment, which I am happy to say, restored me to perfect health in the short space of three weeks. I am now in the enjoyment of perfect health, and am ready to answer any further inquiries that may be made relative to the above case.

I am, Sir, your obedient servant,

(Signed) JOHN DAVIS.

Launceston, Van Diemen's Land, 1st May, 1851.

Mary Ann Wilkinson, for several years of a delicate constitution, has been suffering from a severe attack of Rheumatic Fever, by which she was entirely deprived of the use of her limbs; during this period she was under the care of three of the most eminent medical men in Launceston, but by them her case was pronounced hopeless. A friend prevailed upon her to try Holloway's celebrated Pills, which she persevered in for a few months, and by their means she was restored to perfect health, and is able to follow her employment as a laundress.

CURE OF A PAIN AND TIGHTNESS IN THE CHEST AND STOMACH OF 14 YEARS OF AGE.

From Messrs. Thorn & Son, Proprietors of the Essex Advertiser, who has much pleasure in forwarding the following statement—Sept. 1st, 1851.

To Professor Holloway.

Sir,—I desire to bear testimony to the good effects of Holloway's Pills. For some years I suffered severely from a pain and tightness in the stomach, which was also accompanied by a shortness of breath, that prevented me from walking apace. I am 21 years of age, and considering my unsettled state of life, these Pills have proved one, that I am desirous that others should be made acquainted with their virtues. I am now restored by their means, comparatively active, and can have expressed without inconvenience or pain, which I could not do before. (Signed)

HENRY DOE, North street, Ivers, Norfolk.

The Pills should be used conjointly with the Ointment in most of the following cases:

Bad Legs	Gout	Rheumatism
Bad Breasts	Cancers	Sore Throats
Bites	Coco-bay	Scurvy
Blotches on the Skin	Constipation of the Bowels	Skin Diseases

Fevers of all kinds	Erysipelas	Tic Doloureux
